

ESP 2AC - Final exam overview

A. Interpretive Listening & Reading – lunes 2/24

I CAN

- Understand someone give directions to a location.
- Interpret a map and draw the route finding the destination of the directions given
- Understand and answer questions based on a text describing a Spanish-speaking city.

Vocabulario: Vamos al centro

A. Presentational Writing: - el miércoles 2/26

Carta electrónica

Imagine that you and your friend, Miguel, are studying abroad in Medellín and are planning a day in the city. You are staying in separate host family homes and you are emailing one another to plan an outing in Medellín. Respond to your friend's email with the following: an appropriate greeting, acceptance of his suggestion, give detailed directions from a location to another. You will need suggest an event within a location to visit with a reason (I like ...), suggest a specialize shop to go out to eat, a time to meet, and a farewell (not adiós).

Vocabulary:

Vamos el centro / adjetivos / mandatos / preposiciones de lugar

The writing sample (El mínimo de 100-120 palabras) should include the ideas below

- Present tense conjugations of regular / irregular / reflexive verbs (only ones on your lists)
- Use of two verbs in a row (modal verbs)
- commands
- Vamos el centro / adjectives/ directions
- Introduction sentence
- Transitions words
- Concluding sentence

I can:

- Use the present tense (el presente) and commands to give directions from one location to another
- Use vocabulary and transition words to covey my knowledge in an organized, well thought out manner.

C. Interpersonal Speaking: el jueves 2/27

En una ciudad nueva

With a partner, you are going to discuss getting to know the town in which you are studying.

I CAN

- Use normal conversation conventions
- Talk about a town using the Vamos el centro vocabulary and commands to give directions to a location.
- I can ask questions to get information about the city and locations to visit
- Understand directions given to me.

